

INSIDE

INSIDE

The sun goes down in deadly red, the last rays touch my skin
But they won't reach my dying flesh, the agony within
Bury me in your heart, keep me deep in mind
Deep inside in your soul, hold me closer, hold me, let me never go

There is one fairytale I never understood
The story of your whole life passing by
But now I count the minutes of my last chance to believe
It's just like seeing a film before I die
Bury me in your heart, keep me deep in mind
Deep inside in your soul, hold me closer, hold me, let me never go

Now look into my eyes, there is no time to cry
I know the end is near, but it's the pain I fear
This is no endless fight now that I see the light
I always will be near, I'll never leave you here

Alone

So it's the end, I feel the cold, the creeping claw of death
Take my hand and hold it close, I'll stand the reaper's breath
All my life I was afraid, afraid to see the end
But after all I've now been through
It seems like I am walking into promised land

ON THE EDGE

Fires burning on our TV-sky
Leaders sending kids to war to die
They say our world will last four billion years
We'll live to see if we continue here

We're living on the edge
Stop them now

Children die of hunger to the bones
Do we really care of what is shown?
Starvation should not reach our living room
Our problems solved by a commercial show

We're living on the edge
Stop them now

We're living on the edge of a world disappear
But noone has the courage to stop us here
A war without solution, a land under smoke
Who's gonna pay the rent for the world that we choke
Noone has the right to destroy the land
We live on and till with our very hands
On the egde, on the edge, stop them now!

NEVER

Times runs slowly in this room
I'm made of marble, cold and white
All my life had gone forever, my heart stopped beating

I hold your letter in my hand
I never knew that words could kill
I know you'll never understand just how I feel

Long time ago you cried Please care for me
Hold me in your arms, let the feelings flow
Feel it in your heart never let me go, NEVER
Long time ago you filled my heart with love
I began to live, let the feelings flow
Felt it in my heart never let you go, NEVER

You were the fire in my life
The only torch for my desire
You listened to me when I was down
I never cared of

The ceiling seems to press me down
I stare at spiders on the wall
The paper glides out of my hand
I've lost again

A NORMAL DAY

I wake up, it's four o'clock

Dreams try to get me back into sleep again

I look out of the window watch the falling rain

The siren of an ambulance tells me, someone's dying again

I'm trying to eat but I don't want anything

Listening to the music of the girl next door again

I try to remember the night before

Staring at the broken picture on the floor again

I remember the day when I met you

You showed me all the spheres of love

All the good and the bad times we went through

I just can't throw them all away on this rainy day

Later you call me, crying at the phone

You tell me that you don't love me any more again

I try to get used to be alone

I won't believe that you would hit me to the core again

(Again and again) This is one day, a normal day

(You won't harden yourself) It's always the same

(You will always find reasons for her to excuse)

I don't know what to do now

How could you refuse
